

LET'S TALK ABOUT SEX

Comprehensive Sexuality Education for Faith-Based Communities

SPONSORED BY THE KENTUCKY RELIGIOUS COALITION FOR REPRODUCTIVE CHOICE

“The right information could have changed my life...”

“When I got pregnant, my minister was so kind and helpful to me. I’ll never forget how he got my parents to stop being angry....But where was the church before I got pregnant? If I’d understood the way my faith should shape my decisions, I don’t think I would have had intercourse. And why didn’t the church or anyone else teach me about pills or condoms? I know what I did is my responsibility, but the right information could have changed my life.” A Female Teenager, Faith Matters: Teenagers, Religion, and Sexuality

Date: November 8, 2007 (Thursday)
Time: 8:45 am - 2:00 pm
Place: St. Matthews Episcopal Church
330 N. Hubbards Lane, Louisville, KY
Cost: $25 per person

“Faith Matters”-keynote

Rev. Steve Clapp is the president of Christian Community, a research organization in Ft. Wayne, Indiana dedicated to researching and improving various areas of congregational life. Steve will share the important research he recently conducted with teens across a variety of congregations and how it can shape sexuality education in congregations.

“Keeping it Real”

Courtney Renee Avery is the Midwest Regional Coordinator for the National Black Church Initiative and director of a Chicago-based rape crisis center. Ms. Avery will conduct a workshop on the “Keeping it Real” curriculum, a model for faith-based teen dialogue on sex and sexuality.

An ordained minister in the United Church of Christ, Rev. Steve Clapp, co-authored the book, Faith Matters: Teenagers, Religion, and Sexuality. Copies of the book will be available for purchase at the conference. For more information, see: <http://www.churchstuff.com>

For more information on the National Black Church Initiative and the “Keeping It Real” curriculum, see: <http://www.rcrc.org/programs/blackchurch.cfm>

“Sex Education: A Reality Check”

Lunchtime speaker, Bani Hines Hudson, will share realities from her experiences in the field. Ms. Hudson is a community development specialist and consultant with expertise in family sex education, women and gender issues, and diversity programming. She promotes comprehensive sex education and reproductive justice in collaboration with families, faith communities, organizations and the University of Louisville’s Saturday Academy.

WORKSHOPS: ▶ “Keeping it Real,” Courtney Avery
▶ Sex Education for Parents, Steve Clapp
▶ Review of Adaptable Curricula
LUNCH TALK: “Sex Education: A Reality Check,” Bani Hines Hudson
AFTER LUNCH: Panel, Q&A and Discussion

Reserve your seat. Register today! For info, contact KRCRC: info@krcc.org • 1-866-606-0988 (toll-free/leave message)

REGISTER Online: Go to: www.krcc.org. Click on “Let’s Talk About Sex.” Your credit card information goes through a secure 3rd party and is not seen by KRCRC personnel.
By Mail: Make check payable and send to: KRCRC, PO Box 4065, Louisville, KY 40204. Please Include your name, address, phone and email.
By Phone or E-mail: Call or e-mail your registration (name, address, phone and email address) in advance and pay at the door with check or cash only: 1-866-606-0988;